

To whom it may concern:

The Red Rooster has become a fun and welcoming venue with a variety of music that is appealing to many community members of all ages. Never have I seen any over consumption of alcohol or dangerous/illegal activity. That cannot be said for several other neighborhood bars in Madison!

The renewal of licenses should not be based on a single person's actions albeit a terrible tragedy. Please consider the renewal of licenses for the Red Rooster.

Thank you

Judy Anderson